THE 2,000 fans who sat shivering through the game yesterday were well repaid for any inconvenience they may have suffered, by witnessing a genuine exhibition of the real article of the national game. No better ball has been played anywhere than the article played up by the White Wings and the Logans in the last of their series of three games in this city. Salt Lake, 4, Logan, 3, with but three errors and eleven hits chalked up against both teams, is not bad ball in any man's country.

The game to a certain extent was a pitchers' battle with Kelly of Salt Lake pitted against Hartzell, the youthful wonder of the Logans. The auburn-haired lad pitched great ball, with the exception of the first, when he was touched up for four hits. These hits gave the visitors all the runs scored during the game. A low in-bowler in the following eighth inning did an infant's work for a safe hit, and this was in the eighth, when Bill Hoffer reached second base on a good two-bagger. Although he was the first man up, Hoffer's effort resulted in nothing. Kelly, however, was very busy, allowing eight men to walk, one of them getting home.

Hartzell Pitched Great Ball.

Roy Hartzell, the pride of the Logan bunch, pitched great ball, and was more steady than Kelly. Not a single man walked during the game off his twirling. A low in-bowler in the following eighth inning did an infant's work for a safe hit, and this was in the eighth, when Bill Hoffer reached second base on a good two-bagger. Although he was the first man up, Hoffer's effort resulted in nothing. Kelly, however, was very busy, allowing eight men to walk, one of them getting home.

After Hoffer's effort, Kelly was very busy, allowing eight men to walk, one of them getting home.

Brockhoff's Unassisted Double.

Ginger Brockhoff made an unassisted double in the second that took the start out of the Logan players for a minute. Stucke reached first on a free pass when Manager Stoney came up and knocked a low fly toward second. It looked like a safe hit and Stucke started for second. However, Brockhoff, by a wonderful exhibition of side stepping, caught the ball fair about one inch off the ground and rushed over toward Stucke, who was on his knees before he knew what happened.

Logan started off wrong in the first inning and gave Brockhoff a run on a first time up by two wild throws. The Salt Lake second baseman reached the first on a bunt and started to steal second. Pace's wild throw landed Brockhoff all right and he started for third. Hoffer fielded the throw and sent it spinning over Stucke's head in an effort to shut Brockhoff off at third. The result was that "Bow Wow" came galloping home.

In the second, Kelly started off with a safe hit, Hoffer followed with a two-bagger, scoring Kelly. A hit by Clifford scored Hoffer. Clifford, who has been on the sick list for the last couple of days, went out of the game at first, Borchers taking his place.

Margets' Sacrificed.

Margets sacrificed, getting Borchers to second. Seare sent a foul down. Hoffer and went out. On the next pitched ball, Borchers tried to steal third, but was thrown out by ten feet. During the remainder of the game Salt Lake never got over three men on the bat in one inning, with the exception of the sixth, when Huston scored his home run.

Stoney, the first man up for the Logans, went out from Schils to first. Ramey got a free pass and Pace hit Taylor. Hoffer flew out to Brockhoff and Hartzell followed with a two-bagger. Taylor and Clark, following each sent the ball over to the left garden for safe hits. Hahn struck out and retired the side.

In the second, third and eighth Logan filled the bases, but in each case Kelly retired the side without a run. Schils played a star game at third, getting eight chances without an error. His fast work alone saved the Logans in a couple of tight ones. Ginger Brockhoff seems to have gotten back to his old-time form and yesterday duplicated his playing at the beginning of the season.

Five Innings Begin and End With Protests.

(Special to The Herald.)

Ogden, May 18.—In a rainy day game, very pretty while it lasted, Ogden today defeated the Logan bunch with a score of 2 to 1 in five innings. In the midst of the second half of the fifth Umpire Harkness called the game because of rain, hail and a slippery field. Buck Weaver pitted against a Logan pitcher who was very busy, allowing eight men to walk, one of them getting home.

After Hoffer's effort, Kelly was very busy, allowing eight men to walk, one of them getting home.
